

AUTOMATIC DOOR COMPONENTS ACCREDITATION TRAINING AND TECHNICAL SUPPORT

Tailored training sessions and full technical backup support dedicated in servicing the volume buyer who wishes to supply, install and commission ADC's automatic door products direct to their client.

Full accreditation as a recommended installer of Automatic Door Components products lines.

On-site and in-house training with overviews on British Standard 7036, UK and Scottish Building regulations, European Standards, and all relevant safety legislation with comprehensive manual packs supplied.

Access to PDF and CAD drawings for all products, technical data and updates with full architectural specifications available to download and incorporate into quotations. Generic Risk and Hazard assessments adaptable for our clients company use and automatic door specific. End user manuals and recommendation.

Emergency technical support information through phone and e-mail for complete peace of mind.